PREFACE.

The Norfolk and Norwich Literary Institution was established in the year 1822, for the purpose of combining publications of the highest character, both English and Foreign, in every department, with a liberal supply of the most interesting and popular literature of the day, and a general collection of standard works: thus whilst securing an ample provision of general amusement and information, its Library of Reference would present valuable and increasing facilities for the cultivation of literary and scientific pursuits. To what extent these objects have been already attained, the present Catalogue will bear testimony. Difficulties have arisen, but these are happily surmounted; and the members of this Institution may now look forward, with renewed confidence, to the time when, the objects originally contemplated being fully accomplished, it may take its stand with the best provincial establishments of a similar kind.

In this Institution the want of a new Catalogue on a classified basis has been long felt; for although the alphabetical mode of arrangement may in the infancy of such an establishment be best adapted to the smaller collection of books, yet, after a lapse of twenty years, during which steady progress has been made towards the formation of a valuable Library, classification becomes necessary. On the other hand, the difficulty of assigning to each book its appropriate place under the best arranged system, is so great, owing to the diversified character of many works, that those who make the attempt may claim some indulgence if they should not in every instance have come to the right decision on this point.

The arrangement adopted in the present Catalogue, although agreeing in its general outlines, will, at the same time, be found to differ in some of its details from most other Catalogues:—the sub-divisions in every case must necessarily be adapted to the extent of the collection; for if too numerous and minute, they only tend to confuse the inquirer and increase the difficulty of reference to any particular book. The copious alphabetical index subjoined to this Catalogue will, it is hoped, entirely obviate that difficulty.

The Institution owes much to the liberality of private individuals, who, particularly at an early period of its existence, have enriched its shelves by numerous donations. One hundred and forty-six volumes of Foreign literature were presented by the Norwich Foreign Book Society;—and about fifteen hundred pamphlets, comprising, amongst many others, the collection of the late Sir John Cox Hippesley, Bart., have been presented by various subscribers. The names of the donors were inserted in the former Catalogue, but in the present, it was considered unnecessary, as every donation is recorded in a book provided for the purpose, and the name of the donor is also inscribed within the cover of each presentation book or pamphlet.

Although the subscribers to the Norfolk and Norwich Literary Institution have the privilege of access to the books composing the City Library, in common with the subscribers to the Norwich Public Library, in whose custody they are deposited, it has not been thought proper to insert them in this Catalogue, but a separate Catalogue is kept at the rooms of the Institution: and the books may be obtained by an order from the Town Clerk, to whom application can be made either personally or through the Librarian.

In the summer of 1840 it was considered by several of the members, that instruments for meteorological observations would be a desirable addition to the Institution. A subscription for effecting this object was opened, and a sum sufficient for the purchase of a very superior standard barometer, by Newman, two excellent standard thermometers, a day and night self-registering thermometer, a rain guage, and Daniell's hygrometer, was subscribed by several members of the Institution who felt an interest in scientific inquiries. These instruments are now in the possession of the Society, and a daily register is kept by the Librarian; an abstract of which appears weekly in the Norwich papers.

The Catalogue now offered to the subscribers, although its arrangement may not be considered philosophically correct in all its bearings, will, it is hoped, answer its immediate purpose of facilitating reference; at the same time that it will exhibit the riches and poverty of the Library in the several branches of literature—its riches, that the public may see what has been effected during a comparatively short period*—its poverty, that desiderata may be supplied, and the collection of standard works in each department gradually rendered complete.

LAWS,

CORRECTED TO SEPTEMBER, 1842.

CHAP. I.

LAWS RESPECTING THE MEMBERS.

SECTION I. TERMS OF ADMISSION.

1.—The Members of this Institution shall consist of Shareholders and Annual Subscribers: but Shareholders only shall have an Interest in the Property of the Institution, or be entitled to vote on questions affecting it.

2.—The price of each Share shall be Five Guineas; but when 450 Shares shall have been subscribed for, the Subscription at that rate shall close.

3.—An Annual Subscription of One Guinea and Half shall be paid in advance by every Shareholder: those who hold more than one share being allowed on their additional Share or Shares Interest at four per cent.

4.—Members who are not Shareholders shall pay in advance an Annual Subscription of Two Guineas.

5.—The Annual Payments shall become due on the 22nd of October in each year. A Shareholder not paying his Subscription before the 22nd of December shall thenceforth be charged a fine of One Shilling per Month while in arrear, that if in arrear on the 22nd of December of the following Year, he shall then receive a Month's notice to pay up his arrears, or forfeit his White Ticket, but shall be allowed, nevertheless, to dispose of any additional Shares he may also hold; but that this law shall not be enforced in any case where absence or other efficient reason shall be satisfactorily alleged to the Committee, for non-compliance with the terms of the Law.

6.—Persons elected Members between the 22nd of October in each year, and the 22nd of April following, shall pay a Full Year's Subscription; such as are subsequently elected shall pay for Half the Year only.

7.—Every Member when admitted may, at his own cost, receive a copy of the Regulations of the Institution, and a Catalogue of the books when published; also every Supplement to, or new edition of, the Catalogue, as soon as it shall be printed. Every Shareholder shall, at his own cost, receive a Ticket for each of his Shares, as provided by the 15th Law of this Chapter.

SECTION II. MODE OF ADMISSION.

8.—Persons desirous of joining the Institution must be proposed by a Member, or by the Secretary, who shall inscribe their names and address, together with his own signature, upon a board to be placed in a conspicuous part of the Rooms.

9.—The names of those proposed shall be enumerated in the Summonses issued for the succeeding Monthly Meeting of the Committee, when they shall be Balloted for.

10.—At such Ballots no one shall be elected unless by the votes of at least Two-thirds of the persons present.

SECTION III. TRANSFER OF SHARES.

11.—If any Shareholder wish to dispose of his Property in the Institution, he shall be at liberty to do so, provided the party to whom he wishes to transfer it be accepted on Ballot, unless already a Member.

12.—If any Shareholder dispose of one or more of the Shares he holds, the party to whom they are transferred shall become liable to pay an Annual Subscription of £1 11*s.* 6*d.*, and be entitled to interest on all the Shares so transferred to him, except one.

13.—In any case of proposed Transfer, the same Regulations shall be observed with regard to the admission of the person proposed, as are provided by the 8th, 9th, and 10th Laws of this Chapter.

14.—In the event of the Death of a Shareholder, his Share or Shares shall not be confiscated for non-payment of Annual Subscriptions until four years after his decease:—no books shall be delivered to the representatives of such Shareholder, while such Annual Subscriptions be withheld, but they shall be at liberty at any time to sell the Shares, subject to the regulations respecting transfers, without being chargeable with any other arrears of Subscription than such as may have accrued during the life of the Shareholder.

15.—Each Share shall be represented by a Ticket. The Ticket representing the Share which bears no Interest, but is charged with the payment of an Annual Subscription, shall be a White Ticket,—with the following acknowledgment:—

> "This Ticket, No. certifies that the Bearer holds One Share in the "Norfolk and Norwich Literary Institution, and is entitled to all the "rights and privileges of a Shareholder therein, so long as he continues to "pay an Annual Subscription of one Guinea and a Half, and to conform "to the Laws of the Institution.
> "(Entd.) (Signed)
> "SEC. PRESIDENT."

The Ticket representing the Share which bears Interest shall be a Red Ticket,—with the following acknowledgment:—

> "This Ticket, No. certifies that the Bearer holds One Share in the "Norfolk and Norwich Literary Institution, and is entitled to all the "rights and privileges of a Shareholder therein, and to Interest on One "Share, at four per cent. per Annum, so long as he continues to conform "to the Laws of the Institution.
> "(Entd.) (Signed)
> "SEC. PRESIDENT."

16.—Progressive Numbers shall be attached to the Shares, in the order in which they are subscribed for, and the Tickets which represent them, whether White or Red.

17.—If any person, hitherto not a Member of the Institution, or an Annual Subscriber, should obtain by Transfer, one or more Red Tickets, one of such Tickets must be immediately exchanged for a White Ticket, in conformity with the 12th Law of this Chapter.

White Tickets, however, can never be exchanged for Red Ones. The holder of any number of White Tickets must pay his Subscription on each, but can receive no interest on any of them.

18.—A Book shall be kept for the Registering of Shares, as they are subscribed for, in which all Transfers shall be entered, with notices of every exchange of Red for White Tickets; and every Shareholder making a Transfer must give immediate information of it to the Secretary.

SECTION IV. ANNUAL AND SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS.

19.—An Annual Meeting of the Members of this Institution shall be held on or about the 22nd of October in each year; of which Notice shall be given in the Norwich Papers of the two preceding weeks. The Chair to be taken by the President or one of the Vice-Presidents, or, in their absence, by such person as the Meeting shall appoint.

20.—No New Law can be made, nor any existing Law be Repealed or Altered, except at a General Meeting, and by a majority of the Members present, to be determined by Ballot.

21.—Any New Law, or Repeal, or Alteration proposed, shall be fairly written out and signed by the proposer, and placed conspicuously in the Library for the inspection of Members, at least One Month previous to the General Meeting.

22.—Ladies shall have the privilege of voting by Proxy, provided such Proxy be a Member.

SECTION V. PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS.

23.—Any Member may Introduce a Lady or Gentleman, occasionally resident at or near Norwich, for the purpose of becoming a Temporary Subscriber to the Institution, on paying Five Shillings per Month in advance, and agreeing to be subject to these Laws. The Name and Address of such Temporary Subscriber shall be entered, and signed by the Member introducing, who shall become answerable for any Fines incurred.

24.—Any Member may Introduce Strangers for a period not exceeding One Week, under the following Regulations:—Such strangers shall not be resident at or within ten miles of Norwich, and shall be introduced to the Librarian; their names and addresses shall be entered and signed by the Members introducing, who shall become answerable for any Fines incurred.

25.—Any Member may Propose whatever Works he wishes to be purchased, by entering their Titles and Prices in the Proposing Book.

CHAP. II.

LAWS RESPECTING THE FUNDS.

SECTION I. APPROPRIATION.

1.—The amount received for Shares shall be applied to the purchase of Standard Works, in the various departments of Science and Literature, English and Foreign.

2.—The Net Annual Income shall be appropriated, in the first instance, to the Literature of the Day, and secondly, to the purchase of Standard Works, at the discretion of the Committee.

SECTION II. ACCOUNTS.

3.—All Money payable to the Institution, whether arising from the purchase of Shares, from Annual Subscriptions, Temporary Subscribers, or any other source, shall be received by the Secretary, and be accounted for agreeably to the 28th Law of Chap. III.

4.—All Money due from the Institution shall be paid by the Chairman of the Committee, or his order, and accounted for agreeably to the provisions of the 20th Law of Chap. III.

5.—The Accounts of the Chairman and Treasurer shall be Audited every year by three members of the Committee, to be appointed at their last Monthly Meeting; and the Report of the Auditors shall be read at the Annual Meeting.

SECTION III. BENEFACTORS.

6.—Benefactors of sums to the amount of £21 and upward, although not Members of the Institution, shall be allowed access to it at all times as Honorary Members.[*]

---

[*] By a reference to the first Law of Chap. IV, it will be seen that the same privilege is conferred on "all Donors of Books or other Property, of the estimated value of £21 and upwards."

CHAP. III.

LAWS RESPECTING THE OFFICERS.

SECTION I. ENUMERATION.

1.—The Officers of the Institution shall consist of a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee of Twenty-one Members, a Treasurer, and a Librarian and Secretary.

SECTION II. PRESIDENT, VICE-PRESIDENTS, AND TREASURER.

2.—Any Vacancy occurring in the Offices of President, Vice-President, or Treasurer, shall be supplied by Election by Ballot, at an Annual or Special Meeting.

3.—The President, or in his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents, or in their absence some other Member, shall take the Chair at Annual or Special Meetings, and shall have a second or casting vote, where the numbers are equal.

4.—The President and Vice-Presidents shall be ex officio Members of the Committee.

5.—The Treasurer shall keep an account of all money which pass through his hands on behalf of the Institution; which Accounts shall be audited annually.

SECTION III. COMMITTEE.

6.—The Committee shall consist of twenty-one Members, any five of whom may act. Seven of the number shall go out by rotation, on the 22nd of October in each year, (unless one of them has been appointed to the office of Deputy Chairman in his last year,) and seven new Committee-men shall be annually elected. No Member shall be eligible to be re-elected on the Committee according to the provisions of Law 7, until after the lapse of one year; but should any vacancies occur according to the 13th Law of this Chapter, those Gentlemen who have gone out at the preceding Annual Meeting, shall be eligible for filling up such vacancies, the same as the other Members of the Institution.

7.—The Seven new Committee-men shall be thus chosen.

Each Member, previously to the day of the Annual Meeting, shall deliver to the Secretary (to be deposited by him in a locked box) an alphabetical list of the Seven Members he wishes to nominate, signed with his own name.

Three Members shall be appointed by the Committee at their last Monthly Meeting to examine these Lists; they shall, after examination, report the names of those Seven Members, who have the majority of nominations, to the President at the Annual Meeting, who shall declare them duly elected. In case of an Equality of Votes, the Election shall be determined by lot.

§§ Meetings.

8.—The Committee shall meet on the Second Tuesday in every Month, at Seven o'clock in the Evening precisely, to transact the business of the Society.

9.—At the first Monthly Meeting they shall elect a Chairman and Deputy Chairman out of the number, either of whom when presiding shall have a casting vote, if necessary, in addition to the vote given by him as a Member of the Committee. The same privilege shall be enjoyed by any Member of the Committee who may be called upon to preside in the absence of the Chairman and Deputy Chairman.

10.—The Chairman, or Deputy Chairman, or any five of the Committee, may summon a Meeting of the Committee whenever he or they may think proper.

§§§ Powers Vested in them.

11.—The Committee shall have power to call a Special General Meeting, when they deem it expedient, by giving similar notices to those required for the Annual Meeting.

12.—If any Committee-man absent himself from the Committee three successive Meetings, without alleging a satisfactory excuse, his place shall be declared vacant.

13.—Should any Vacancy occur, by death, change of residence, non-attendance, or resignation, the Committee may immediately proceed to supply the Vacancy by nominating any Member whom they shall think eligible, who shall continue on the Committee for the same period as the Member in lieu of whom he is appointed.

14.—The Committee shall determine what Books, Maps, Pamphlets, and Periodical Works shall be admitted into the Library.

15.—They shall determine what Books shall circulate, and the time allowed for reading them; also what Duplicates shall be provided.

16.—They shall dispose of such Works of temporary interest, and Duplicates no longer required for circulation, as they may think right.

17.—The Committee may Shut up the Library for the purpose of examining into its state, whenever they think proper; a week's previous notice having been given.

18.—They are empowered to frame and adopt Temporary Regulations, which shall remain in force until the next General Meeting.

19.—If any difficulty arise, not expressly provided for by these Laws, it shall be determined by the Committee.

§§§§ Chairman.

20.—The Chairman shall keep an account of all Money received from the Librarian; he shall pay all demands upon the Institution, and hand over the balance to the Treasurer.

21.—The Chairman, with one or two Members of the Committee, shall occasionally visit the Library, to inspect the Librarian's and Secretary's Accounts, and to examine the state of the Books; and shall report their observations to the Committee, at their next Monthly Meeting.

SECTION IV. LIBRARIAN AND SECRETARY.

22.—The Librarian, who shall also act as Secretary, shall be elected by the Society at large, at a General Meeting, and shall continue in Office without re-election, as long as it shall be agreeable to himself and the Society.

§§ His Duties as Librarian.

23.—The Librarian shall attend, or provide attendance, to deliver out and receive Books, and to transact the general business of the Institution, from Ten o'clock in the morning until

Nine at night, every day, except Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Monday and Tuesday, Christmas day, and the day following.

He shall keep an accurate account of the Circulation of the Books; he shall examine them when returned; and shall inform the Committee of any damage they may have sustained, in order that proper fines may be imposed; which Fines he shall rigorously enforce.

24.—He shall carefully collate all Books purchased for the Institution, that they may be rejected if imperfect.

25.—He shall keep Alphabetical and Classified Catalogues of the Books of the Institution.

26.—He shall determine and mark in every volume, which is permitted to circulate, the number of days allowed for its reading, subject to the revision of the Committee.

§§§ His Duties as Secretary.

27.—The Secretary shall issue Notices of Annual and Special General Meetings, stating the business to be transacted.

He shall give Notices of the Meetings of the Committee two days at least before each Monthly or Special Meeting, specifying in the Notices the names of the Persons, if any, for whom a ballot is to be taken.

28.—He shall receive all Money due to the Institution, and shall pay it over, every month, to the Chairman of the Committee, who shall account for it agreeably to the provisions of the 20th Law of this Chapter.

29.—He shall keep a Book, in which he shall insert the Names of Benefactors, Donors of Books, and Shareholders without interest. He shall also keep all the Books which are required by the Laws respecting Shareholders, Subscribers, Temporary Subscribers, Strangers, Accounts, Circulation, and the Proposing of Books.

30.—He shall record the Proceedings of the Committee.

31.—In case of any mistake or stain happening in any of the Records of the Society, neither the leaf on which it has occurred, nor any leaf whatever, shall be cut out or cancelled unless at a General Meeting; and then the reason of such mutilation shall be assigned and testified by the signature of the President, on behalf of such General Meeting.

CHAP. IV.

LAWS RESPECTING THE BOOKS.

SECTION I. DONATIONS.

1.—All Donors of Books or other Property, of the estimated value of £21 and upwards, shall, although not Members of the Institution, be allowed access to it at all times as Honorary Members.

2.—All Books presented or bequeathed to the Institution shall be deposited in the Library for the use of the Members; and shall not circulate without the express permission of the Committee.

SECTION II. GENERAL CIRCULATION.

3.—The Reviews, Magazines, and Pamphlets, shall remain upon the Table of the Library a fortnight before they are sent into circulation; but when the day for circulating them occurs on a Monday, they shall, for the convenience of Country Members, be allowed to be sent on the preceding Saturday.

4.—The Books shall be delivered to the Subscribers in the order of their applications to the Librarian.

If two or more persons apply at the same time, their claims shall be determined by Lot.

5.—When any person applies for a work that is in circulation, the Librarian shall inform him when it is expected to be returned; and if he desire it, his Name shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose, that it may be reserved for him, and the Librarian shall send a notice, if required, when such Book is returned. If the Book be not sent for, on the day of giving such notice, or the day following, the Librarian shall be at liberty to deliver it to the next person who has applied.

6.—A Review and two Books (one of which must, however, have been published above two years) may be delivered at the same time to a Member, it being moreover allowable to consider the whole set of volumes of a Novel as one Book. In extraordinary cases, the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Committee, are each empowered to give permission for the issue of a greater number.

7.—No Member shall be allowed to take out the same new Book twice during the first year of its circulation, unless it has remained a week upon the shelves of the Library.

8.—If a Member take out the first volume of a set, he may require the Librarian to reserve the succeeding volumes to be delivered in regular order.*

In case of the undue detention of any volume, the Librarian is at liberty to deliver the remaining volumes to any other applicants.

9.—The Librarian shall be authorized, on the delivery of certain Works of particular value, selected by the Committee, to require, of the Member receiving them, a promissory note for their return entire and uninjured. Penalties, in case of injury, to be incurred according to the Regulations in this Chapter.

SECTION III. COUNTRY CIRCULATION.

10.—Members residing in the County, or two miles from the City Gates, shall be allowed the privilege of detaining Books until the next Saturday after they shall become due. They shall also be permitted to withdraw a larger number of Books at a time than are allowed to resident Members.

That any Member resident in Norwich, who goes into the Country for any period exceeding a week, shall, during his absence, enjoy all the privileges of a Country Member, provided he gives notice to the Librarian before he leaves Norwich, of his intended absence and of the probable duration of such absence.

SECTION IV. FINES AND FORFEITURES.

11.—Any Member who shall remove from the premises any Book, Pamphlet, or Paper, contrary to the Regulations of the Institution, may be suspended by the authority of the Committee, until the next General Meeting, when, if it be thought expedient, he shall be expelled, and shall forfeit his Shares to the Institution.

* This law does not extend to Reviews and other Works of an unconnected nature.

12.—If any Book be lost, the Member to whom the same was last delivered shall immediately replace it with a new one of the same edition, or pay to the Librarian the value of the same. If the Book so lost be part of a set, he shall replace the lost volume, or shall take the remaining volumes and purchase or pay for a New Set for the Library. Should he refuse to submit to these penalties, he shall be expelled; and, if a Shareholder, shall forfeit his Share, or such of his Shares, in the Institution, as will compensate the loss.

13.—No Member shall be allowed to take a Book out of the Library until his Subscription be paid, or while his Fines are in arrear.

14.—The Daily Fine for the undue detention of Books shall be 3d. for an Octavo or Duodecimo, and 6d. for a Quarto or Folio. The day on which the Books are delivered out, the day on which they are returned, and the Sundays which may intervene, shall not be calculated in the number of days allowed for reading.

15.—Adequate Fines shall be imposed by the Committee, on all who shall deface or otherwise injure the Books of the Institution; provided such Fines never exceeded the value of the Books so damaged. The power of mitigating the Penalties incurred by such offences shall rest with the Committee.

This volume has belonged successively to the Rev. George Ashby, of Barrow, in Suffolk, and G. Burrell, Esq., of Thetford; and is enriched with their MS. notes. It contains a presentation Copy of Gough's Coins, and a proof, with the Author's Corrections, of a folio tract, in 4 pages, by Dr. Browne Willis; see Nichols's Literary Anecdotes, vol. 2, page 35. Several plates, and MS. illustrations have been inserted; among the latter, a list, written by Thomas Martin, of Thetford, of early British Coins in his possession;—and a Catalogue of Coins belonging to the late S. Tyssen, Esq., with the prices they obtained at the Sale of his Collection.
